A BOILER EXPLODED

And John Glass and Son Came Near Death.

ACCIDENT IN AN OIL FIELD

A Boiler Burst and Blew a Shed to Pieces—A Narrow Escape For Father and Son—Glass Was Injured, but Not Seriously—A Tree Cut Off 20 Feet From the Ground by the Accident.

News of a boiler explosion at Five Points, about a mile from Ohlerville, reached here yesterday evening. When the particulars are learned it seems almost miraculous that the accident was not attended by any fatal results.

John Glass is manager for a Pittsburgh man who owns a number of gas wells at Five Points. To operate the pumps he had an engine in a shed near one of the wells. Yesterday about noon while Glass and his little son were around among the wells, not far from the shed, the boiler of the engine exploded with terrific force. The shed was literally blown to splinters and scattered for a distance of 100 yards. The manhead was blown fully a quarter of a mile and ploughed a big hole in the ground when it fell. Glass felt something strike him on the side of the head, and lost consciousness. When he recovered he found a large gash on his head, which was bleeding profusely. The boy was nearer the engine than was his father, who was struck by a piece of the metal, but was not injured beyond a scratch on the face. It is indeed fortunate that the explosion occurred just when it did, as in five minutes more Glass would have been standing on the top of the shed, fixing the machinery, so that all would be safe while he went to dinner and that a terrible accident would have resulted can well be imagined.

Glass's injuries are severe but not serious, and he will soon be able to resume his duties again. The explosion was heard by farmers more than a mile away.

TO UNIONISTS.

Pertinent Pointers Respecting the New Weekly Paper.

"EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—Knowing your paper to be an advocate of the principle of fair play, and that its columns are open to men and manufacturers alike, permit me to use your space in a limited degree in making queries as to the legitimate status and standing of the contemplated weekly paper, supposed to represent unionism in our midst, and to be called 'The People'."

"Who represents the aforesaid journal and what is back of it?"

"Will it be established and published in East Liverpool or elsewhere?"

"Has not the local Trades Council, representing almost every trade and union in East Liverpool, declared, in executive session assembled, that it has nothing to do with the above-mentioned paper, its conduct and its production?"

"Is 'The People' a private venture, by a private individual, or is it backed by a stock company, using organized labor as a means of enriching the purse and pockets of the few stockholders?"

"I am a unionist, from center to circumference, and a firm believer and advocate of the cause of organized labor, and will do all I can to aid and assist a legitimate labor weekly in East Liverpool. I am also an earnest advocate of the Trades Council of East Liverpool, as I know that said council is conducted and run wisely and well, and is controlled by men conversant with true union principles—men of intelligence and forethought; men who can control money to back a paper when the proper time arrives for issuing said paper, and when the proper man is at hand to wisely and well conduct such a representative union journal."

"I know, further, that Trades Council represents, in its fullest and best sense, the union labor and union organizations of this city, and I look with suspicion upon any movement respecting the establishment of a strictly labor paper in East Liverpool, if said paper has not the backing and sanction of Trades Council."

"In conclusion, let me place myself in an absolutely correct position respecting the paper to be known as 'The People,' so that no rank outsider or petty kicker can attempt to rise up and vehemently declare that I am attempting to prevent the establishment of a labor weekly in this city."

"Let the individual or individuals controlling 'The Paper' go before the Trades Council and secure its backing, support and sanction, and I, in conjunction with a host of lovers of organized labor, will do all I can for the paper. If 'The People' cannot or will not do this, and will continue to sneer at the Trades Council and assert that the organization has no special power in labor circles or among unionists, as an individual connected with 'The People' has been known to do, in the presence of men whose union record he dare not challenge, then the aforesaid paper is not, by any manner of means, representative of the union or organized labor element of this city, and should not be supported."

FOR SHERIFF.

Let Each Republican Stand by Our Home Candidate.

Republicans, the primaries tomorrow should decide that East Liverpool must have the office of SHERIFF of the county, and East Liverpool will have it if we are only true to the city in which we get our bread and butter, and the man who works or votes for any other candidate than our own Charley Gill, should be entitled to a free pass outside the corporate limits, where he can earn his living where he votes. East Liverpool has played second fiddle to the balance of the county long enough, and it is our own fault that we have done it, for if we will vote for our own man, we can win without a doubt, and every voter who goes to the polls tomorrow afternoon should vote, not for Charley Gill alone, but for East Liverpool. If any of us are sore towards any one else in the city, let us wait and fight it out among ourselves in the future, for we will each have the chance. But when it comes to the balance of the county, let us stand together and vote together, for East Liverpool, and not be tools to pull somebody else's chestnuts out of the fire.

EAST LIVERPOOL.

To Republicans.

A. M. Norris has made the battle for the berth of commissioner on two occasions previous to his present candidacy. He has made a gallant fight on each occasion with a handsome vote back of him, but has failed to land as a winner. What did he then do? Did he sulk and refuse to support the nominee? Did he refuse to do all he could for his more fortunate competitor? Did he refuse to bow to the will of the majority and act the part of a stay-at-home? Not by any manner of means. Like a true man and a loyal Republican, he stepped into the arena and pulled off his coat for the nominee, voting for him in person and doing everything in his power to induce others to follow his example. A. M. Norris belongs to this end of the county and can be called an East Liverpool candidate. He is ably qualified for the position. He will do credit to his constituents. He deserves and should have the position, and every lover of fair play in the Republican ranks will see to it that their ballots are cast for him tomorrow at the primaries.

Some Incidental Seeds.

The Alliance Critic says: "Hon. R. W. Taylor, congressman from this district, is in receipt of a letter from the department of agriculture which reads as follows:

"Replying to your communication of the 4th inst., I have to inform you that the department will have no seeds at your disposal until after the convening of the Fifty-fourth congress, on the first Monday of December next. The entire allotment placed to the credit of your district was distributed by your predecessor in congress." So the farmers really got something. Well, well, this is indeed an age of wonders.

Mrs. Weaver Gets a Divorce.

Lisbon, April 12.—Mrs. Hattie E. Weaver was divorced today from Alex D. Weaver, of East Liverpool.

Court will adjourn Monday to reopen in three weeks.

The Masons in Wellsville.

About 75 Masons, their wives and daughters, from this city, attended the meeting of the Wellsville chapter last night. Three candidates were initiated, and at 10 o'clock 150 persons sat down at a banquet at the Commercial House. The festivities lasted until after midnight.

IN TWO SHORT WEEKS

Crystal Water Will Flow From the Diamond Pump.

NO MORE TASTE OF SULPHUR

This Objectionable Feature Removed by a Patent Appliance—A Fountain Almost Nine Feet High and Six Feet in Diameter Will Stand on the Site of the Present One—Healthful Water.

Work was begun yesterday on the new Diamond pump and in two weeks the pure, sparkling water which was so eagerly sought for last summer will be flowing from a handsome fountain.

More important than the change of fountain, to those who use the water will be the change in the flavor of the crystal fluid. It has heretofore been strongly mixed with sulphur and the tins have rusted more easily and assumed a yellowish color from contact with it. Although generally considered healthy, the sulphur water was not relished as the pure fluid would have been and the odor it emitted was unpleasant. Yesterday the pipe was removed from the well, the basin cleaned and a rubber packer put in to shut off the sulphur. The new fountain will be a handsome one and much larger than the one used last year. It will be six feet in diameter at the bottom, set in a fancy pedestal, and with a brass ball or reservoir at the top of a column eight feet and ten inches in height. The same style of machinery will be used as was in use last year, except the addition of sprocket pulleys and chain belts. The motor of last year for pumping the water will be pressed into service again, although not until repairs have been made, as the workmen had the misfortune of breaking the cups yesterday. New cups have been sent for and will be here in a few days. The order for the fountain was placed with a New York firm today.

The total expenses to the committee in charge will be about $200 and will leave little or nothing in the pump fund; but this does not worry the interested parties, as they have had proof that East Liverpool people know a good thing when they see it, and are always willing to give financial aid.

ON THE ROAD.

Travelers For Potteries Are Not Lovers of Free Trade.

The traveling salesmen of the East Liverpool potteries are the men who are best conversant with the state of trade throughout the country in the pottery line, and letters from them to their employers show that they are utterly disgusted with free trade, as represented and upheld by the Democratic party of this nation. Talking with a pottery manufacturer last evening, as he held a letter from a commercial traveler representing his establishment, he said:

"And this represents the state of trade throughout the land and the causes thereof. We can put out first-class goods, the product of good material and first-class workmen, and yet find exceedingly limited sale for the same, despite the fact that the demand for such goods is great. And no one need ask the why or wherefore of such a condition of affairs. The matter in a nutshell, is the fault of the Democratic blunderers who have charge of the government and who have utterly failed to protect the people and the industries of our nation. Such blunderers are actual traitors to this government, as the legislation enacted by them has filled our land with foreign made goods, while home manufacturers and home workmen remain idle and suffer the consequences of what is at least criminal ignorance. I am disgusted with such a state of affairs and am tired of the whole business. The man who writes me this letter respecting trade for East Liverpool potteries in general, and my own pottery in particular, is a keen-witted, conservative gentleman, and he states that foreign made goods are being offered buyers at ruinously low prices. So you see I have just cause for grumbling and growling. As a rule I feel like kicking the raven-hued growler and prognosticator of hard times; but I am actually blue today, and the silver lining of the cloud is hard to see. Good evening."

SUITS BEFORE SQUIRES.

Several New Cases by People Who Want Money.

Business in the justices' courts has livened up considerably during the past few days, and seven suits of importance were entered yesterday and today.

John Cain entered suit before

Squire Manley against Phillip McBane for $208.95, the amount of a promissory note. He asks interest on $250 for three years and eight months, as the entire amount was the latter sum. The case is set for hearing on Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Dr. L. O. Williams entered suit in Squire Rose's court yesterday against Harry H. Nott and John W. Nott. It is a case in ejectment, the plaintiffs occupying one of Williams' houses. The case will be heard at 1 o'clock on Monday afternoon next.

Miss Laura Gamble entered suit in Squire Rose's court yesterday against Mr. and Mrs. Walter Young. She claims $20 due for housework and whether or not the money is rightfully hers will be decided in Squire Rose's court Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

The action in ejectment of Mrs. O'Hanlon versus Joseph Smith has been withdrawn. As stated in the News Review yesterday the township trustees had found a place of abode for the numerous members of the Smith family, but they moved quicker than Mrs. O'Hanlon anticipated. The case was in Squire Manley's court and the plaintiff paid the costs.

Squire Travis will try no more cases, in fact he will not receive none, as his term has so nearly expired. Ex-Mayor Morley, the new justice, has fitted up his office at his home near the corner of Third and Market streets, and yesterday purchased Squire Travis's printed matter at closing out to quit business rates.

It is positively stated that the celebrated long lost case of the Stroh Brewing company versus Ferd Oschmann will actually be tried in the court of Squire Rose on Monday morning next. If not it will probably be continued.

To Republican Voters.

E. PALESTINE, O., April 9, '95. To the Republican voters of Liverpool township:

We, the undersigned Republican voters of Unity township, desire to announce to our fellow Republicans of the county that at the coming Republican primary, to be held April 13, Unity township presents a candidate, Mr. Ira Kannal, for the office of county commissioner, and we desire to commend our candidate to you for your favorable consideration and, we hope, for your vote and influence at the coming primary.

In presenting to you our candidate, we can say to you that he is a straight Republican, a careful, conservative business man and would administer the affairs of the county in a careful and economical way.

He has served our township in the capacity of trustee for a number of years and has just been re-elected without any opposition from either Republicans or Democrats.

Unity township has but once since the Republicans succeeded to power been represented in an official capacity at Lisbon, and that more than 20 years ago. During all these years the Republicans of this township have worked nobly. At the time when we had the one Republican representative above referred to, we were one of the strongest Democratic townships in the county. We have kept on gaining, however, by hard work, until the present time, and are now able to give the Republican ticket from 100 to 200 majority.

We think that under the circumstances we are entitled to a representative upon the board of commissioners at this time. The northeastern part of the county has never had a representative upon the board of commissioners since the Republican party succeeded to power in Columbiana county, and it seems to us that under a fair distribution of the offices of the county, our right to the commissioner-ship at this time ought to be conceded to us.

We would like to have you carefully consider not only our candidate, but the claims of our township, and we would be glad to have you render us such assistance as you can give us at the primary on the 13th inst.

Enos Yoder, H. H. Young, W. C. Chamberlin, G. B. Alaback, D. H. Mackintosh, George E. Sebring, Elias Lentz, W. J. Fisher, Henry Roderus, J. I. Brittain, H. S. Fraser, A. N. JENNINGS IS IN CHARGE

And Will be Chief Until After the Election.

AFFAIRS AROUND CITY HALL

The Force of Three Remains Unaltered. Officer Earle the Victim of a Street Railway Accident. The First Arrest Credited to Officer Menor.

Affairs about city hall are much the same today as yesterday, except that there is a new head to the police force.

Officer Jennings was placed in charge of the force last night, and will continue until after the election, when Chief Gill will go on duty again. The force still consists of but three men and a patrolman, although a street car came near diminishing it one last night. Officer Earle attempted to board the front end of a westbound car on Sixth street and missed his footing. He was dragged several car lengths and had a narrow escape from going under the wheels. He sustained an injured foot and was badly shaken up.

Mayor Gilbert yesterday afternoon gave Thomas Wellington a hearing on a charge of stealing $125 from Jacob Bartel, and bound him over to court in the sum of $1,000. He was taken to Lisbon this morning by the mayor, accompanied by Captain Suplee and R. L. Abrams.

The city jail contains but one prisoner today. He is Thomas Brintnell, and was found in a drunken condition on Second street at 9:45 o'clock last night by Officer Menor. He has not been fined.

A Play Worth Seeing.

"The Man in the Iron Mask," as presented by the Punch Robertson company at the Grand last night, was the best performance of the season, which is saying a great deal for a troupe playing at popular prices. Donald Robertson, impersonating Gaston, the twin brother of Louis XIV, king of France, was powerful. His bursts of indignation were thrilling, his pleading touched responsive chords as though his audience looked upon reality; his every word and move increased the breathless interest he aroused from his first appearance on the stage. He was a lover, a madman and humble suppliant in the same breath and not once did he fail to portray these characters true to life. As "The Man in the Iron Mask" he excelled. In the death scene his acting was perhaps the most realistic and was as impressive as it was powerful. None the less able was Miss Branden Douglas as Marie D'Estanges, another principal character in the play. Her voice manner and every move was faultless. She was thrilling as persecuted and insulted womanhood, pleasing as the satisfied, confiding maiden and stirred to the depths the better nature of everyone who saw her in her role of the patient, heartbroken nun. Stewart's famous "Two Johns" will appear at the Grand tonight and the Robertson company will present "Rip Van Winkle" in matinee tomorrow afternoon.

Found His Old Partner.

Manager James E. Orr, of the Grand Opera House, found with the Punch Robertson troupe a former companion in the show business, a man whom he had not seen for 17 years. The gentleman is Otis E. Turner, who usually takes the role of Irish comedian with the troupe, and last night played as Father Andolne. Manager Orr was bill poster and Mr. Turner lithographer among the advance men of Sells Bros' circus. They parted in Green Bay, Wis., just 17 years ago, and have known nothing of each other's whereabouts since. It can be imagined that the chance meeting was agreeable to both and that no notice was taken of the flight of time as the pair talked over the most important happenings which went to make up life during their circus days.

For President,

await developments.
LET the newly appointed policemen do their sworn duty, and they will not lack for warm friends and substantial backing.
The ever alive candidate was numerous in the city today, and he visited is a clever gentleman. Take your choice.

COUNCILMAN PEAKE is said to have accomplished everything in his power, in the way of improvements in the Fourth ward, during his former terms in council. Let the members of the other wards be present for duty when the roll call is sounded on meeting nights, and they will be accorded full credit by their constituents.
CITY ENGINEER GEORGE deserves
commendation for his very able article, published in yesterday's issue of the NEWS REVIEW, respecting the condition of the streets and sewers of East Liverpool. Council will do a wise thing if they pay attention to the advice given and suggestions made by our able, skillful and trustworthy city engineer.

THE NEWS REVIEW does not employ anyone to solicit advertisements, local or display, outside the management of the paper, and anyone representing himself as connected with this paper, or representing the paper as being subject to advertisements secured by him, is a fraud and a cheat.
We make this statement in order to prevent our merchants and business men from being imposed upon, as several of them have already made complaint respecting the matter.

PRESIDENT BERG deserved the thanks which council tendered him so graciously upon his retiring from his position among the Solons. He made a good and conservative officer, and the only slanderer found in the city against him, is supposed to be the owner and proprietor of a weakly sheet in East Liverpool, having a circulation in accordance with the strength of the "devil," or printer's apprentice, as he peddles the unsavory sheet from house to house as often as it is issued.

THAT INCOME TAX.
The special income tax feature, imposed by the blackheadism of so-called statesmen of the Democratic blunderers at Washington, is susceptible of so many different constructions, that even the special agent appointed by the government cannot understand or explain it clearly. It is dollars to doughnuts that the feature will be wiped out of existence. If it is correctly defined by experts, an individual can draw a $4,000 salary yearly and pay no income tax, while a corporation or stock company, composed of two or more members, can toil steadily all year upon a small salary, of say from $600 to $800 per year each, in order to clear a small amount in the shape of net earnings, and must then pay two per cent upon each and every dollar so earned and laid away. This is the definition, as given by Mr. Kennedy. If correct, then the law is the biggest blackhead production of the century, out-herding Herod, and even worse than that masterpiece of skulduggery, incidental protection.

A Rich Program and a Crowd of Interested Listeners.

The entertainment at the Young Men's Christian association rooms last night was a most pronounced and flattering success, the rooms being crowded with a delighted, appreciative and attentive audience. The program as announced in the NEWS REVIEW of yesterday was carried out to the letter, with the exception of the part assigned to Miss De Temple and Mr. Gotschall, the lady being absent on account of the death Mr. Carl Schnepf. Miss Pearl Sebring added to her already rich laurels in vocalization by her rendering of exquisite songs, and was heartily applauded. Ed McIntosh sang, as he always does, superbly. Mr. Will Morris made a hit in a comic recitation. Miss Bird Kinney won the hearts of her audience with a pleasing solo. Miss Jeannette Ashbaugh, accompanied on the violin by Professor Gotschall, gave the "Angel's Serenade" in splendid voice and enunciation. Miss Claude Gill's humorous recitation was a fine effort, heartily applauded. Miss Georgie McLane gave a solo, and her singing delighted everyone present. The lady has a fine voice, which promises her a place in the front rank of our local singers. Professor Gotschall was called for by numerous admirers and he responded in song in a manner which won him new friends in our city. The entertainment was certainly a richly enjoyable one, and we hope to have more of them. Miss Clara Chapman presided at the piano in a very acceptable manner. She has the warm thanks of the Young Men's Christian association.

Did you ever see one of the famous waterproof Interlined Collars or Cuffs? It's very easy to tell, for they are all marked this way

They are the only Interlined Collars and Cuffs, and are made of linen, covered with waterproof "ELLULOID." They'll stand right by you day in and day out and they are all marked this way

The first cost is the only cost, for they keep clean a long time, and when soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth—that is the kind marked this way

These collars and cuffs will outlast six linen ones. The wearer escapes laundry trials and laundry bills—no chafed neck and no wilting down if you get a collar marked this way

Ask your dealer first, and take nothing that has not above trade mark, if you desire perfect satisfaction. All others are imitations absolutely. If you can't find collars or cuffs marked this way, we will send you a sample postpaid on receipt of price. Collars, 25 cts. each. Cuffs 50 cts. pair.
